DON'T EVER MARRY,

Crude

SAYS MARJORIE DAW.

Anti-Marriage Movement Started By Movie Star Who Asserts that Marriage Is Usually a Failure and Men Are Deceitful. Mary and Doug The Exception, She Adds.

Girls! Girls! Especially you who are "off men for life" for any one of many reasons. Here's your opportunity to get together and show your strength!

Marjorie Daw, the movie star, has just started a movement the slogan of which is "Don't Ever Marry." Marjorie says marriage is the bunk, men are the cause of all the trouble and a lot of other things with which many of you will agree.

"In most cases marriage is a failure", said Miss Daw in speaking of her anti-marriage movement, "It's always the man's fault, Man is just naturally deceitful and not to be trusted. His love making is an illusion and as soon as he has won the confidence and love of a girl who has chosen him as her ideal, like the vaudeville magician he makes it disappear instantaneously.

"When it comes to being true lovers, men are natural born actors whether they are in motion pictures or not. While I do not speak from a experience I am pretty good observer.

"Girls, let's get together. There are thousands who think the same as I do. Let's show our strength and disclose the faults of these actor-lovers. Let's form a union that will force our demands that all men must love singly and only once at a time, or else—don't ever marry."

In view of the fact that Miss Daw recently acted as bridesmaid at the Pickford-Fairbanks wedding, she was asked if Mary and Doug would join her movement. "Hardly", she replied. "There are always exceptions and in this case Mary and Doug are THE exception. I have known both of them for a long, long time and no sweeter truer romance ever existed."
